KELLY RECEIVES ANZAC SPIRIT AWARD

On 27 July, the Premier Hon. Steven Marshall MP and Hon. John Gardner MP, Minister for Education, presented the 2018 Premier's Anzac Spirit School Prize to 15 students from across South Australia, including Golden Grove High School Year 10 student Kelly.

The prize winners also met with Vietnam veterans and representatives of the RSL in preparation for their upcoming study tour of Vietnam. Kelly's prize winning entry was about World War I soldier Private Leonard Mahoney. She is now working with Vietnam veteran Graedon Dickson to prepare a tribute to his friend Private Lindsay Brown, which Kelly will present during her trip. Private Brown was killed in action at the Battle of Balmoral 50 years ago this year.

LEGACY PUBLIC SPEAKING COMPETITION STATE FINALIST: TROPHY + $150 FOR OLIVIA KIEFTE

We congratulate our Year 9 student, Olivia, on her success in winning a Trophy and the Encouragement Award to the value of $150 for presenting her Prepared Speech, Social Justice: Education for Girls, and her Impromptu Speech, Do I really care?, at the Legacy Public Speaking Competition State Final.

(I'm sure that those who heard Olivia present her Prepared Speech at the Year 9 Assembly will not be surprised.) Well done, Olivia!
