GOLDEN GROVE HIGH SCHOOL – SPECIAL ENTRY DANCE APPLICATION

Golden Grove High School offers students entering Year 7 in 2025 the opportunity to audition for the Special Entry Dance program.

The program continues in Year 8, 9 and 10 and students may progress to SACE Dance in Year 11 and 12.

Entry to this program is by written application and class audition. We invite students who have a strong interest in Dance to apply. This program is open to all students regardless of school zone.

AUDITION INFORMATION:

When: Sunday 19th May 2024 an audition time will be allocated on receipt of your application.

Where: Golden Grove High School – Dame Roma Mitchell Centre (DRMC) (enter via main entrance). The DRMC is the large dark green building adjacent to the car park.

Detail: Each applicant will undertake a class of Classical, Contemporary and Jazz work. A panel of experienced dance teachers and arts educators will conduct the session. Students will not be asked to present any work individually.

Parents will not be able to watch the audition.

Applicants will receive an email within two weeks of the audition notifying them of the outcome of the process.

For further information regarding the program, please contact Lynette Haines on (08) 8282 6400.

Interested applicants are invited to complete this Registration of Interest and attach the following supporting documents:

1. Birth Certificate or current passport
2. Proof of Residence – Current lease or council rate notice and electricity bill
3. School Reports for the previous two semesters
(Year 6 please provide Year 5 reports)

Please return this form and all supporting documents to the Executive Secretary dl.1834.info@schools.sa.edu.au in order to process your application. Registration of Interest will ONLY be processed when all of the supporting documentation has been received. Applications close Friday 3rd May 2024.
