Students who have not obtained a C- grade or higher in the SACE compulsory subjects, Research Project or Activating Identities and Futures (AIF) (10 credits), English (20 credits), Mathematics (10 credits) and Personal Learning Plan (10 credits) will not be able to commence a Stage 2 program in 2024.

Additional information and instructions

1. All subject information is located at <https://goldengrovehs.sa.edu.au/curriculum-page/senior-school.html>
2. SACE Information is located at <https://goldengrovehs.sa.edu.au/curriculum-page/sace-information.html>
3. The subjects you select should match your future pathway (University, TAFE, Apprenticeship or Full Time Employment), interests and strengths. Read the subject outline from the handbook and where applicable ensure you meet the minimum entry requirements for the subject.
4. University courses with pre-requisite subjects must be selected in Stage 2. University courses with assumed knowledge subjects should be selected in Stage 2. Please ensure you check the relevant SATAC information.
5. Certain subjects are precluded combinations for attracting an ATAR. Should you wish to study a precluded combination and not gain an ATAR you will need to speak to the Year 11 Sub School Team.

Please note

If you are considering studying at an interstate university you need to check their specific conditions of entry as these may be different, for example many Eastern State Universities require a Stage 2 English/EALD subject. The following courses attract 'Adjustment Factor' – English, English Literary Studies, Japanese, Mathematical Studies, Specialist Mathematics and Spanish.

6. TAFE course entry requirements should be checked using <https://www.tafesa.edu.au/courses>
7. Vocational Education and Training [VET] is located at <https://goldengrovehs.sa.edu.au/curriculum-page/vet-information.html>. If you want to complete an approved VET Certificate, complete the application from at:
